MIAMI/SOUTH FLORIDA Here's a look at the best new Miami/South Florida restaurants, corporate event venues, hotels, conference centers, and private and party rooms to open for events this fall. These new and renovated Miami/South Florida venues can accommodate groups large or small for private and corporate events, conferences, meetings, weddings, business dinners, teambuilding activities, cocktail parties, and more.

7. Hawks Cay Resort

As part of an ongoing, multimillion-dollar renovation, Hawks Cay Resort in the Florida Keys has renovated its meeting space. Following a gut renovation of three smaller meeting rooms, the resort created the Dolphin Ballroom. It features new carpet, wall coverings, audiovisual from PSAV, natural light, and water views. The space seats 400 at rounds or 600 theater-style. Other changes at the 60-acre property include converting its Ocean restaurant into a dedicated space for events, and a new 250-seat restaurant, Angler & Ale, that is slated to open in January.
