Hilton Ponce Golf & Casino Resort

▲ HILTON PONCE GOLF & CASINO RESORT, PUERTO RICO

WHAT TO KNOW The Hilton resort located in Ponce reopened last December after undergoing more than $3 million in renovations, which included its rooms, lobby, fitness center and banquet areas. The hotel offers a variety of outdoor and indoor spaces perfect for destination affairs (a one-night stay for the newlyweds is included).

MUST-DOs Up for some friendly competition? Grab your clubs and head to the 27-hole golf course. Afterward, cool off with a dip in the updated pool, or enjoy the surf on its beach. End the night putting some cash on black in the casino. Hilton.com

► HAWKS CAY RESORT, KEY WEST

WHAT TO KNOW Hawks Cay Resort, set to open by the end of this summer, took the significant hurricane damage as an opportunity to redesign its 177 guest rooms and lobby, and introduce a new fine-dining experience. Its wedding venues have also been refreshed. If you want a luxe beach vibe, but are worried about the weather, celebrate in its ballroom overlooking the ocean (no plan B needed).

MUST-DOs Check out the brand-new, adults-only Oasis Cay and lounge next to the Tranquility Pool while you get your drink on at its bar with views of the Atlantic. Plus, the resort can arrange an intimate dinner for two poolside or on the beach—yes, please. HawksCay.com

Four Seasons Resort and Residences

▲ FOUR SEASONS RESORT AND RESIDENCES ANGUILLA

WHAT TO KNOW After suffering from cosmetic damage, the Four Seasons—the largest employer on Anguilla—reopened in March with an island and resort blessing ceremony. Located on Barnes and Meads bays, the resort has 70 guest rooms, 50 suites (including its ocean-view studio rooftop suite) and 24 villas, which are perfect for getting ready with your bridesmaids or groomsmen before your ceremony on the terrace.

MUST-DOs Visit the resort's Sea Centre to set up a prime spot on the beach—umbrella included—or sign up for kitesurfing and stand-up paddleboarding. For some postwedding relaxation, indulge in a couple's treatment at the spa. FourSeasons.com/anguilla
